

SEA SALTS & SAIL 9 – 11 JULY 2010

BOOKING FORM FOR RESERVING STALL SPACES

There are a number of spaces available for visiting stallholders, but the Committee would like to point out that all stallholders are responsible for their own security etc.

The Festival is to be run over three days with the most of the events getting underway on Friday from about 4.30 pm, although there is a number of things going on throughout the day, such as Heritage Walks and Photographic Display.

All stallholders are asked to refrain from selling refreshments and approaching spectators with collecting tins as this deflects from the festival profits
